Objective-

- Providing Expert view and guideline.
- Raising critical psycho- socio issues
- Free conversation between students & faculties.
- Developing the mindset based on Indian knowledge system.
- Guidance and counseling for filling the generation gap.

The Context

Thus in total 'Guru Sang Gonth' is a discussion between experts and students on any psycho-social issue/problems to talk with mentor/teacher without hesitation, is crucial to prepare beforehand, focus on the purpose of the conversation and approach them with an attitude of respect and opinions.

To talk with your mentor teacher without hesitation, it is crucial to prepare beforehand focus on the purpose of the conversation and approach them with an attitude of respect and openness.

The practice 'More Noni' meaning

Create an environment, where the students are communicating 80% of the time and the instructor communicating 20% of the time .

The guru is an experienced advisor who guides and supports less experienced students, nurturing their personal and professional growth through knowledge sharing and guidance. This naturally beneficial relationship enhances skill development and decision making for the students.

Topics to discuss with mentor include career planning, skill development and personal growth area like leadership and work life balance.

'Guru' is a Sanskrit word, meaning a teacher, mentor, expert or spiritual leader who is expert in any particular subject or area and can be used as an expert or guide. 'Sang' is association, attachment, company or friendship. 'Gonth' is a conversation, discussion, meeting and dialogue.

The Evidence of Success-

It was feel that our education system is based in attaining degrees of core subjects, but it is need of hour that students are facing psycho-socio areas and so it is essential to have a free discussion or dialogue with the experts or 'Gurus' who would not only encounter their problems but also guide and counsel them on day to day life issues.

The uniqueness and method of this practice is been followed under same title in other university also.

Problem Encountered and Resource Required

No problems were faced, infect we had sessions which were very successful from other universities, institutes and valuable ideas without any charges.
